SP870

High Brightness Projector

The era of "lights-on" presentations has arrived! Get ready to brighten your presentations with 5000 ANSI lumens. Let the BenQ high brightness projector bring you the light you need for your business meetings.

Enjoy Projecting with the Lights On

The Brightest Projector with 5000 ANSI Lumens

BenQ's SP870 projector is the brightest choice for all your meetings. Light and compact with 5000 ANSI lumens high brightness and 2000:1 high contrast ratio, the BenQ SP870 will put the shine on you and the smile on your audience every room every time!

SP870

Other Brand

The BenQ SP870 allows you to keep the lights on in all of your meetings. You'll never have to suffer from dark rooms like you did with others' projectors again.

Enjoy the Liveliest Colors with Up-to-Date Technology

Bring the Colors of the World to Life

Made in collaboration with the advanced BrilliantColor™ Technology from Texas Instruments, BenQ's unique golden ratio 5 segments color wheel gives you the truest, liveliest color ever.

With BrilliantColor™

Better Color Management for Better Personal Viewing

The built-in 3D color management technology gives you the pleasure of adjusting the color intensity with the independent control of six colors' (R/G/B/C/M/Y) hue, gain, and saturation levels.

Red Saturation

It Has Everything that You Can Think Of

Wall Color Correction

BenQ has studied the world's most commonly used paint colors and developed an easy-to-use wall color correction technology that will ensure you precise color performance on all surfaces.

Lamp Care

The SP870 can detect the bulb temperature automatically making sure the temperature is cool enough before it allows the lamp to power up.

Panel Key Lock

Use the control console or the remote to press the lock-key and be safe from accidentally pushing the wrong buttons. Now, you'll be safe from having your presentation disappear from view!

Presentation Timer

The preset on-screen messages or audible beeps keep you on the right track! Now, you'll be making eye contacts with your audience instead of your watch.

Power On / Off Tone

Let the built-in alerts tell you when to start projecting and when to pack things up. Enjoy talking with your audience at ease!

Quick Auto Search

The SP870 automatically searches for and routes your presentation in 2 seconds allowing you to present whenever you are ready.
